

Ch. 10 APUSH History Guide

Please write all responses on a separate sheet of paper.

Review Questions

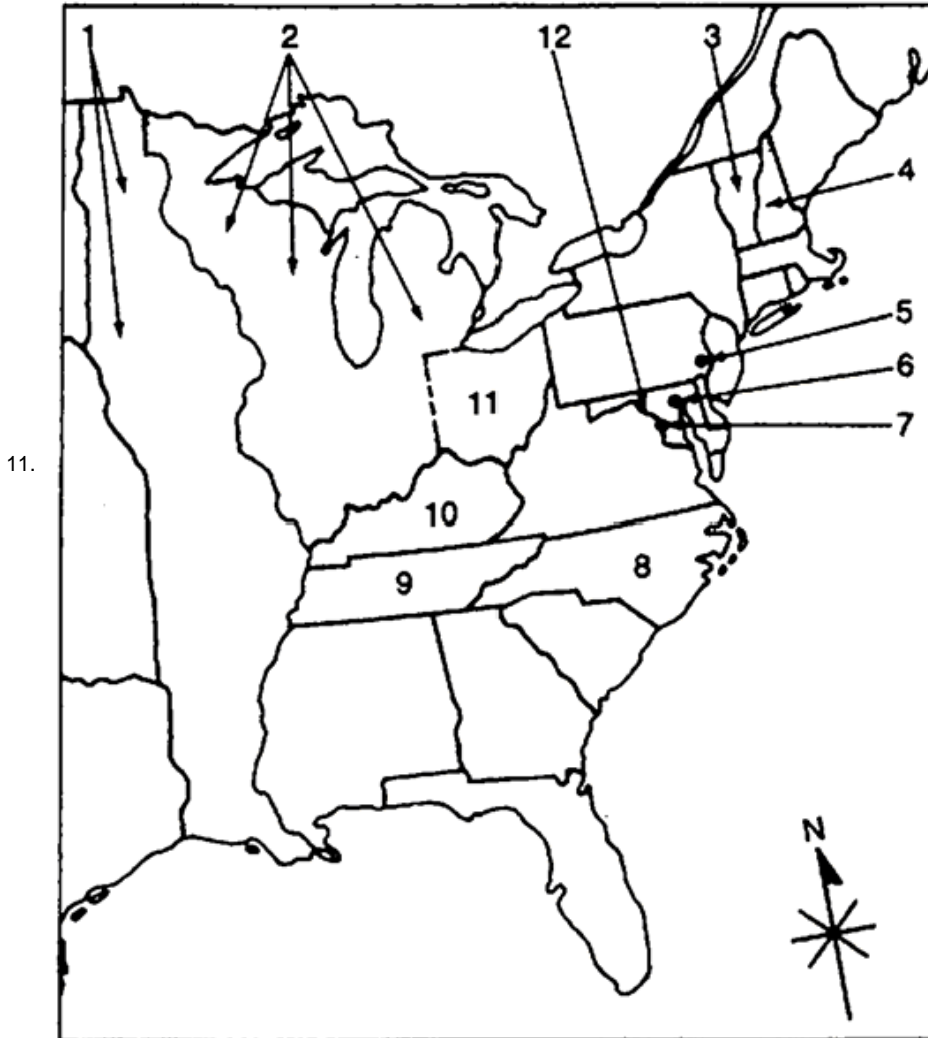

1. What were the pros and cons of the creation of a National Bank? What political and constitutional issues were involved in this piece of legislation?
2. Assess how and the extent to which the Whiskey Rebellion of 1794 and the French Revolution of 1789 influenced the emerging stark political differences between the Federalist and Democratic-Republican political parties in the 1790s.
3. Compare and contrast the Federalists and the Democratic-Republicans, especially their views on popular and representative democracy, government power, the economy, and foreign affairs.
4. Assume you were an independent yeoman farmer from Virginia, a New York manufacturer and exporter, Pennsylvania frontier moonshiner, or a Maryland artisan. How would you have voted on funding, assumption, the National Bank, and protective tariffs in Alexander Hamilton's economic program? Explain why would you have supported or opposed these particular pieces of Hamilton's economic program.
5. What was the relationship between the French Revolution and American domestic politics in the 1790s?
6. Summarize the central arguments of the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions. Explain why they are key documents in American history. Address and evaluate the legitimacy of the constitutional arguments of the "state compact" and "state nullification" theories that underlay both resolutions.
7. How were the Alien Laws and the Sedition Act alleged violations of the Bill of Rights? What arguments were used to justify these laws, and what arguments were used to argue against these laws? Do you find these arguments convincing? Why or why not?
8. Which of the following do you think made the most important contribution to American national interests: Neutrality Proclamation, Washington's Farewell Address, or Convention of 1800? Justify your answer.
9. John Adams called his peaceful resolution of the problems with France in 1800 "the most splendid diamond in my crown." Why did he think so? Was his pride justified? Why or why not?
10. List the provisions of Jay's Treaty with Great Britain. Why were several of the key elements of the treaty highly unsatisfactory to particular American economic and political interests? What were some of the unforeseen domestic political and foreign policy consequences of Jay's Treaty?

There is more fun on the other side.

Map Work

Locate the following places by reference number on the map:

The United States, Spanish Louisiana, and the Old Northwest Around 1789 and Before the Louisiana Purchase

11.

12. ___ Kentucky

13. ___ Ohio

14. ___ Tennessee

15. ___ Vermont

16. ___ Baltimore

17. ___ District of Columbia

18. ___ Old Northwest

19. ___ Spanish Louisiana

20. ___ Potomac River